EASTER MESSAGE

"This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad. Alleluia"

There is something unique about the Easter Liturgies, and that is, the reality of movement – not just activity, but a joyful movement of going forth – the Church that goes forth!

We certainly see this in the Gospel for Easter Sunday with Peter and John running towards the empty tomb, after Mary Magdalene had run to them with the news that the Lord was no longer in the tomb! We read again, in the same Gospel, that Mary encounters Jesus outside the tomb after Peter and John had hurried off and she, in turn, runs to tell the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" Mary was not only the first disciple to see the risen Lord, but she was a missionary disciple, she is the Church that goes forth with a message of hope and joy!

Past Christmas was very difficult for our community and Buffalo area. We have watched our church communities was almost empty and silence. It has been a difficult time not only for people of faith but for the whole Buffalo community as well.

Today, during this Easter season, we are looking for a new sense of hope with Resurrected Christ.

Perhaps there is nothing as hopeful and meaningful in our faith celebrations as the Easter Vigil Mass when the new Paschal Candle is brought into the darkened church. The simple light is held high and shines brightly in the darkness as a reminder that Jesus is the light of the world. The congregation lights their small candles from the Easter Candle, one by one. The church becomes radiant and there is a sign of hope coming from each of us holding our lighted candles. The Paschal Candle moves down the aisle accompanied by the words: Christ our Light - Thanks be to God, echoing through the church.

Is this not a sign of what we are called to do as we move forward through? Are we not called to be signs of hope as we re-build our church communities. In fact, we are on the very doorstep of a unique experience of church renewal. The lessons we have learned over the past year must play a part in this renewal, especially how important, beautiful and valuable our faith really is; how vital the sacraments are to us; how hopeful the Word of God is to us. Is not our task to rebuild, to renew, to proclaim, to go out and be that light symbolized at the Easter Vigil?

In the reading from the Acts of the Apostles for Easter Sunday, it is Peter who speaks and encourages the little Church, so weak in many ways, to go forth in both word and deed to be of service to salvation: "You know the message that spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee...how Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power went about doing good and healing...He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God..." We too must go out and gather our communities once again, and we must build them anew. But more than that, we must transcend our borders and reach out doing good in the wider community just as Christ did.

This Easter, perhaps more than ever, there is good reason to be hopeful in our faith and to live a true Christian realism where we clearly acknowledge the reality of our present situation with all its lights and shadows. An Easter Faith means simply to believe that God's hand can be found everywhere and, in every event, however happy or sad, knowing, as St. Paul says: "...that all things work together for good for those who love God".

Wishing you and your loved ones, friends and family a most blessed, healthy and graced Easter celebration.

Parents and Guardians of 1st Reconciliation: After the Mass, pictures can be taken with Fr. Marcin followed by a warm reception to celebrate their Sacrament at the Faith Formation building.

Parents and Guardians of 3rd grade: There will be a 1st Holy Communion rehearsal on Saturday, April 29th during class time (9:30 am-10:30 am). Students will be dropped off at the school and Catechist will take attendance. Once attendance is taken, the students will be led into the Church with their teachers. Parents please meet us in the Church. We will go through the steps of the Mass so the children will get to practice the procession into the Church, their readings and offer Confession to students and parents, before Sunday.

St Josaphat Emergency Repair Donations

Dear parishioners of St Josaphat. We greatly appreciate your generous donations for our church repair project. We managed to raise $50,350.00 that will cover approximately one third of our expenses. We hope to finish all outside wall repairs during this year. Every donation for this goal is always welcomed and appreciated.

The following projects are also in our plans: repair of stations of the cross and church painting, new bathroom in main entrance of our church, AC in church, outside sidewalk and landscaping renewal, convent and rectory demolition, restoration of our parking lot. All these projects will be done when our financial status allows us. We have time and we have many generous hearts at St. Josaphat. We believe we are going to achieve these goals of improving and enhancing our church and parish center buildings along with the landscaping and parking.

Thank you for your faith, prayers and monetary support.

~Fr Jozef

Feast of Divine Mercy - April 16

During the course of Jesus' revelations to Saint Faustina on the Divine Mercy He asked on numerous occasions that a feast day be dedicated to the Divine Mercy and that this feast be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. The liturgical texts of that day, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, concern the institution of the Sacrament of Penance, the Tribunal of the Divine Mercy, and are thus already suited to the request of Our Lord. In a decree dated 23 May 2000, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments stated that "throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come." These papal acts represent the highest endorsement that the Church can give to a private revelation, an act of papal infallibility proclaiming the certain sanctity of the mystic, and the granting of a universal feast, as requested by Our Lord to St. Faustina.

Concerning the Feast of Mercy Jesus said:

Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary 300)

I want the image solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. (Diary 341)

This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of my tender mercies. (Diary 420)

*On one occasion, I heard these words: My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. * [our emphasis] On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. (Diary 699)*

I want to grant complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy. (Diary 1109)

The Lord's desire for the Feast includes the solemn, public veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy by the Church, as well as personal acts of veneration and mercy. The great promise for the individual soul is that a devotional act of sacramental penance and Communion will obtain for that soul the plenitude of the divine mercy on the Feast.

SPECIAL HOUR OF MERCY FOR OUR 3 CHURCHES

On April 16th, Sunday of Divine Mercy, we will participate in God's Love during our weekend Masses and also from 3 to 4 pm. During the Hour of Mercy, The Eucharistic Adoration, Chaplet and Special Blessings of Healing will be given to all who will turn to Jesus for help. All are invited to the OLHC Chapel where we venerate Image of Divine Mercy in our side altar. Jesus, I trust in you!
