August 15th Solemnity – A Reminder of Mary’s Unique Role in Process of Our Salvation

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which the Church celebrates every year on August 15. Simply put, the dogma of the Assumption states that at the end of her life, the Blessed Virgin Mary was taken, body and soul, into Heaven. While this event isn’t reflected in Sacred Scripture, it is clearly part of the Church’s earliest observance. In the sixth century, St. John Damascene wrote in one of his sermons, “Your sacred and happy soul, as nature will have it, was separated in death from your most blessed and immaculate body, and although the body was duly interred, it did not remain in the state of death, neither was it dissolved by decay; your most pure and sinless body was not left on earth, but you were transferred to your heavenly throne.”

St. Josaphat Kuncevych’s Quatercentenary 400th Martyrdom: November 12, 1623—Josaphat’s Youth (PART 2)

There were no counselors for John to guide him in what was happening between the churches. Where could he find the truth in this situation? He sought out the higher truth that he dedicated himself to; and as all saints do, he followed the narrow and straight path.

According to Theodosia Boresky, “In all earnestness he got down on his knees before the favorite ikon of the Crucified Lord and asked God, the unfailing guide, for enlightenment in the direction he should take; ‘O send out thy light and thy truth, let them lead me, let them bring me into Thy holy hill and thy tabernacles.’ (Psalm 43:3) And God did not forsake His chosen one but revealed to him His divine will. Almost instantly he became aware of the newly revealed truth and at the same time felt in his heart such doubt and skepticism for the Schismatic, Byzantine Church that he unconsciously repeated with the psalmist ‘Show me Thy ways, O Lord; teach me Thy paths. Lead me in Thy truth and teach me: for Thou art the God of my salvation: on Thee I wait all the day.’” (Life of St. Josaphat: Martyr of the Union) With a renewed spirit, inward joy, and determination, St. Josaphat joined the Uniate Church.

At the Uniate Church of the Holy Trinity, he attended daily mass, sang in the choir (high soprano), decorated the altars, rang the bells, and prayed to Almighty God that those who had been led astray would return to the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

It was clear that this disease of spiritual ignorance demanded a desperate remedy. What would happen to those who were ignorant of the basics of their faith on which their salvation depends on? St. Josaphat became aware of his vocation and the one thing he had to do on earth.

The purpose of John’s worldly life had been accomplished. He had reached the height of Christian piety, yet God was calling him to an even higher order of sanctity, that of the monastic brotherhood, as a monk. This great soul would deny himself in order to possess all. Worldly treasures lost their value, and his heart desired to follow Christ who said in Matthew Chapter 19, verse 21 “Jesus said to him, ‘if you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.’” John gave up being a merchant of worldly goods to become a merchant of heavenly treasures.

Nothing could dissuade his decision to become a monk, not even being offered the hand of the Yakinta’s only daughter in marriage, together with all his possessions, he declined all of it. God’s voice was stronger than any threats or harsh treatment. Nothing could shake his resilience. John had made up his mind to leave the world, become a monk and live for God.

Resurrection Church Chicken Dinner/Basket Raffle

The Resurrection Parish BW Chicken Dinner and Basket Raffle will be held on Sunday, September 10 from 1:00 – 4:00 PM in the Resurrection Parish Center. Proceeds from this fundraiser will go towards renovations to the church and parish hall. Chicken dinner tickets are available for $15 at Resurrection Church before and after all weekend masses and at the Resurrection Rectory during regular office hours. Basket raffle tickets will be available at the Resurrection Parish Center beginning Saturday, August 26 after all Resurrection Parish weekend masses. If you are interested in donating a basket, gift card/certificate, and/or lottery ticket, they can be left with the ushers in the back of the church before and after all weekend masses or they can be dropped off at the Resurrection Rectory during regular office hours. Or if you prefer, gift card/certificates and lottery tickets can be deposited in the weekly collection basket in an envelope marked Resurrection Basket Raffle. If you have any questions, please contact Judy Glinski, 716-803-2176 or Cheryl Tubisz, 716-901-2617.

Thank you once again for supporting Resurrection Parish!

BIBLE STUDY

HEADLINE: Matthew: The King & His Kingdom

The book of Matthew brings the history of Christ to life. We see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the kingdom of heaven. Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, is a twenty-four-part Bible study that explores how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to a new level of holiness and shows how we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church, to live it.

We invite all of our parishioners and friends from all 4 of our Churches! Fr. Jozef will be leading this Bible Study and will begin Matthew: The King and His Kingdom on September 21, 2023 at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall at OLHC. Because this study was made as a 24-week study, participants will meet every week in the Fall for 8 weeks to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. In the Spring we will continue with the same book and take on the next 8 chapters. For more information or to register, contact Renée at 716-458-3130 or at olhc.faithformation@gmail.com.

Queen of Martyrs Church

Queen of Martyrs is hosting a ConnectLife blood drive on Tuesday, August 29th, from 2-6 pm. The event will take place on the ConnectLife bus that will be located in the Church parking lot at 180 George Urban Blvd., Cheektowaga. Schedule your appointment by calling ConnectLife at 716-529-4270 or by visiting ConnectLifeGiveBlood.org and entering sponsor code 000941. All August donors will receive an exclusive Buffalo Bills 6-can cooler AND be entered for a chance to win a pair of tickets to any Bills home game (3 winners will be selected from everyone who donates blood that week). Summertime is the number one time of year that blood centers across the country see a decline in donations, while the hospital demand remains at or above the normal monthly average. Give blood and make an impact on your Community!
