SICK AND HOMEBOUND COMMUNION CALLS

Our Family of Parishes is blessed to have several parishioners who currently serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion to parishioners who are sick or homebound on a monthly basis. If you are a Eucharistic Minister and interested in helping, please contact your Parish Office and let them know. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy – visiting the sick – reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community.

We are also creating a list of sick or homebound parishioners in need of a Communion Call. If you know a parishioner who is sick or homebound and would like to receive a monthly Communion Call, please call your Parish Office and ask to have them added to our list.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The journey towards becoming a full member of the Catholic Church includes time for prayer, catechesis, and conversation. For those who are not baptized, or baptized in another Christian denomination and seeking to be full members of the Catholic Church, or Baptized Catholic but not Confirmed, there is a program called the Rite of Catholic Initiation for Adults (RCIA). RCIA is also open to Catholics who are already Confirmed and would like a program to learn more about the faith.

RCIA will begin after Christmas on a date to be determined. If you would like more information about RCIA, please contact the OLHC Parish Office.

St. Josaphat Kuncevych's Quatercentenary 400th Martyrdom: November 12, 1623 – St. Josaphat the Monk

The state of the monasteries in the Ukraine were in desperate need of renewal. John (Josaphat) wanted to give back to God all that he had received, his heart, mind, strength, ability as reflected through his personal radiance. God sent John to renew the monastery to its previous glory.

Members of monastic orders, monks, dedicate their lives chiefly to prayer, contemplation, and mortification of the flesh all done for the salvation of souls. Some monks give retreats, teach, publish books, write newspapers, offer masses and lead in deeds of mercy for the spiritual and physical uplifting of God's people. And John did all of these as a monk.

The Eastern Church had a custom that only monks could become bishops. The monk must be a good monk, completely detached from self, filled with zeal and virtue, responsive to the needs of his people, then he would be a worthy candidate for bishop. This was all part of God's mission for John later in his life. (Continued with next bulletin.)
